

Diversity and Inclusion in Physical Education and Active Recreation in Secondary Schools

20th June 2019
Victoria University
Footscray Campus

Supporting and encouraging practical excellence by teachers in the education of physical activity for children attending secondary school regardless of ability, gender and culturally diverse background.

This one day interactive workshop will:

- Provide insights that will complement teaching and encourage greater participation of children in sport and physical education based on the following groups:
 - Girls
 - Lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, and/or inter sex
 - Newly arrived migrant refugees and culturally diverse
 - Physical and intellectual disability
- Identify challenges and associated solutions
- Gain new knowledge and skills relating to access, attitude, choice, partnerships and opportunities
- Provide resources to assist with the practical application of teaching diversity and inclusion in secondary schools

Program

Registration/Tea and Coffee: 8.30am

Welcome: 9 am

Prof Clare Hanlon, Victoria University; Dr Bridie O'Donnell, Office for Women in Sport and Recreation

Session 1, Girls: 9.10 -10.15am

The self-esteem and body image of girls - how to motivate girls to participate in physical education

Insight presenter: Ass Professor Zali Yager, Institute of Health and Sport, Victoria University

Practical application of teaching: Greg Schneiders, Kidzphyz

Morning tea: 10.15-10.45 am

Session 2, Lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, and/or intersex: 10.45 – 12.00pm

How to create safe and inclusive environments for LGBTI secondary students in physical education

Insight presenter: Kodie Webb, Department of Education and Training

Practical application of teaching: Alana Wearne, Castlemaine Secondary College

Lunch: 12 – 12.45pm

Session 3, Newly arrived migrant refugees and cultural diversity: 12.45 – 2.00pm

How to connect to children who are newly arrived migrant refugees and from culturally diverse backgrounds, and how we in the school can help children make the connection from school to the sport community.

Insight presenter: Dr Karen Block, Centre for Health Equity, University of Melbourne

Practical application of teaching: Mark Wilson, Noble Park English Language School

Session 4, Physical and intellectual disability: 2.15 – 3.30pm

Key messages for teaching children with physical or intellectual disabilities and teaching children on the autism spectrum

Insights presenters: Dr Janet Young / Loretta Konjaski, First Year College, Victoria University

Practical application of teaching: Saleem Nasser, Thornbury High School

Registration Fees:

One day $250

ACHPER Special Offer: $170 when you book in conjunction with the ACHPER Victoria Secondary/VCE Conference on June 21

Pre-service teachers $75.00

To register visit achper.vic.edu.au